Enjoy! [id:6191356,6191195] Learn more about this item Wedding itineraries are important nowadays since Malay weddings are not as standardized like the past. Having an itinerary, whether basic or detailed, helps inform everyone with the coming and goings of your wedding. Just in case there is a need to call for a certain vendor, they don't have to ask the bride and groom for numbers and such. Mostly thanks to our DJ who had followed our itinerary closely and constantly made announcements of our event cues. Every wedding is different in terms of number of guests, location, duration, types & number of cultural practices and more. What I find helpful too is to give a family list of names to the DJ so they can call out your family members just in case they are in need for photo taking or simply and introduction to everyone. But to each it's own, ya? Basically, the DJ can not only recognize your family but also know how to address them. We were just sitting on our pelamin, enjoying the moment, listening to music, looking at the guests enjoying their food and chit chatting. Use it as a guide and don't panic if everything does not fall into place to the minute. The people who would benefit your wedding itinerary are the photographers, videographers and mak andam so they know what should happen next in terms of timings and event cues. Contact Us Contact No: 9117 3564 Email: info@artofmarriage.sg Biz Reg No: 53243176] With a lil' over 2 months more to go and we are pretty much relaxed cos u know ours is not the full blast typical Malay wedding affair. In fact, throughout, we had a few minutes of 'open' time when we were not taking pictures with anyone. We didn't have that though because who are ready & have assembled to take photos, take photos lah. No need to waste time call this mak cik, that cousin to assemble. With that said, so many things can happen at the same time and anything can happen so please know that it's okay if you stray a little from the itinerary. Heehee..anyway at least we know better what NOT to do this time round © As our appointments with our main Wedding vendor pengantin.sg & bridal/stylist Gee Rhis is fast approaching and our itinerary pretty much ready, thought I would share this very simple & straight forward itinerary sample that I came across in my search for a template (yeah I am a Google search fan!) It really is a NO BRAINER I'm tellin' ya! Sukaaa sekali kan if the only thing left to do is just to input the finer details, edit here & there..My kind of template indeed! Why need an itinerary?? Before I share my itinerary, please note that it is based on/ for: ★ Basic guideline ★ 500 pax guests ★ 1 day wedding ★ Combined Wedding ★ Has Malay traditional aspects ★ No Bertandang (no visiting other venues) ★ Has berarak/ hadang with live kompang ★ No photography/ videography shoot after event First is the contact list. My suggestion is to make it simple to follow for your Groomsmen . Bridesmaids, DJ, Emcee, Photographer and all the important people in your entourage ...and don't sweat the small stuff ok..DO allow yourself some buffer time cos no matter how organized we are, things do happen...moreover it's gonna be YOUR big day!! Chill & have fun!! Stay tuned dearies for the next update following the meeting with our Wedding vendors..smile y'all! Wedding Itinerary Template, Electronic Wedding Timeline, Mobile Phone Timeline, Rustic Barn Lights Digital Timeline, Smartphone iPhone EditableKeep your Bridal Party and Wedding Guests on Time with this Ohhh so cute Wedding Timeline that's super easy to share right from your phone!CREATE your own PRINTABLE WEDDING TIMELINE. Well, honestly you certainly can do without it BUT including an itinerary will just make everything else more organized & helpful plus with minimum waiting time & glitches (hopefully not). Giving your DJ a copy too is helpful so they can announce to the guests your entrance, timing for an outfit change and more with confidence. Next, is the itinerary itself which I divided into 2 parts for easy reference. Alhamdulillah, We managed to follow the itinerary as close as possible with 15+/- minutes difference. I guess as Khai & me are not exactly the 'nervous malu2 1st time nak kahwin' couple..bwahaha not making fun of anyone here..u know what I mean..kita ni counted as 'pengantin lama' type of couple? This is for everyone but mostly for the family. Note again that my itinerary is basic because I personally think it's not necessary to be so detailed. Optional is also give relative's family names to DJ for photography sessions and to have things in order. I also gave the list to the DJ just in case they need to make an announcement or want to make an intro of our vendors. This is to avoid confusion, delay and also with plenty of people aware of your schedule, the more efficient your wedding will be. I didn't expect the latter but I will explain more when I review our DJ. No fonts to download, no software to install.★INSTANT EDITING!.....You will receive an email from Templett.com immediately after purchase with the link to your editable templates.You will not receive anything in the mail (No Waiting - Instant Editing!).★EASY TO USE!.....1. We even managed to go up to end the event right on time if not a few minutes earlier.
